Biography

It has been nearly 5 years since Theerapon's last exhibition - with good excuse. That was when life had other short term plans for him. To look after his ailing parents, marry his beautiful long-time girlfriend Pat and father a child.

Imagine 150 x 180 cm.

Now he's back with an exhibition that shows ambition and research. Each is a puzzle of technique, subject and architecture. His previous shows moved to collaborate other themes – Bali with Thailand in a colour-fused landscape, an idyllic Angkor as part of the enchanted forest.

Theerapon focused his Thai background with the best the world has to offer. He started with his own back yard – Angkor, moved regionally to Bali and now takes on the influences of the finest artists from Europe.

Red Bird 80 x 100 cm.

Warrior I 80 x 100 cm.

The paintings in this exhibition hint of Klimt, Ernst, Rousseau and Beaux Arts. He has concentrated the bulk of the show on vertical canvasses dedicated to theatrical fantasies and operatic costuming. His previous career in advertising art gives us graphic precision technique and faultless colour renditions. But the imagination of the artist is absolute and not for one moment compromised.

Lady in Peace III 69 x 145 cm.

Blossom II 80 x 140 cm.

King of Birds 69 x 145 cm.

Costume II 69 x 145 cm.

Costume I 69 x 145 cm.

Gold Costume II 69 x 145 cm.

Dreaming Again 69 x 145 cm.
